Parish Safeguarding Officer:

Vacancy at St Leonard's

The Parish Safeguarding Officer is the key link between the diocese and the parish, concerning safeguarding matters.

It is a positive leadership role supporting and providing direction to the parish in good safeguarding practice.

They will have an overview of all church activities involving children, young people and vulnerable adults and will seek to ensure the implementation of safeguarding policy and practice.

The role can be taken by one person, or the role shared. Support is provided by the diocese.

If you would like more information or to discuss the role please speak to Rev Paul North.

Schools have broken up. Pupils, teachers and school staff are putting their feet up, taking a much needed and thoroughly deserved break. The hearts and minds of many people are focused upon their holidays. For some this means glamorous locations and exotic adventures, for others the time to spend catching up with friends and loved ones. Some people look forward to the school holidays with great joy, for others it provides a whole new set of challenges. One thing the school holidays do is to emphasise to us all the importance of rest.

We live in a society that bases identity around what we do, how long we spend doing it, what we have achieved and how much we have earned on the way. We also live in a society battling with a huge rise in stress related illness.

The creation narrative has something important to tell us about rest,

“So, the sky, the earth, and all that filled them were finished. By the seventh day God finished the work he had been doing, so he rested from all his work. God blessed the seventh day and made it a holy day, because on that day he rested from all the work he had done in creating the world.” Genesis 2:1-3

God rested. Humans rested on their first full complete day of existence – They rested as their creator rested. Rest is essential not optional. We need to put our feet up. We need to take rest seriously.

All the way through Jesus’ ministry we see Jesus taking time out to rest with his father. Straight after his baptism, for forty days, early in the morning he ‘disappeared’ to be with his father. Jesus taught his disciples to rest. Jesus said,

“Come to me all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light” Matt 11:28-30

Jesus invites the weak and heavy laden, to come to him and find rest. An inner rest where the pressures of this life subside, where we can be strengthened to face each day. As we make our way through the school holiday season let us be people who are not afraid to rest, people who are confident enough to put our feet up.

Peace, perfect peace

Dear Jesus

When we pray for Your help and blessing, we remember the words, "be still in the presence of the Lord". Fill us with the peace of mind and serenity which only You can give, and restore us once again. May we remain safe and content, knowing Your peace will continue to dwell in us.

By Terence Trimmer

A.S.A.P.

Have you ever considered the abbreviation A.S.A.P. (As Soon As Possible)? Generally, it brings even more hurry and stress into our lives. Yet there is another way to think of A.S.A.P, a way which might help us deal with those difficult times in our daily lives.

When there's work to do, and deadlines to meet, and your colleagues are rushing around, here's what you can do to help: A.S.A.P. – Always Say a Prayer. When your worries mount up and you don't know how you are ever going to cope with what is coming at you: A.S.A.P. – Always Say a Prayer.

God knows how stressful our lives can be, and He wants to ease our cares. In the Bible He promises to respond to our calls for help. So – call Him! A.S.A.P.!

Lammas Service
at St Leonard's Warmingham
at 11.30am

Lammas Day is traditionally the first day of the harvest. At our service local farmers join to celebrate the first loaves of bread to be made from the first ears of ripe corn.

The Home Group will not be meeting in August.

Summer Social Evening

The weather certainly was not very summer like, so the decision was made to hold the Summer Social Evening in the Community Hall. What a wonderful evening we all enjoyed – listening to the South Cheshire Concert band, socialising, eating, and drinking.

The band played a selection of light, popular music. The programme included a March called “Glory and Honour,” which was composed by Andrew North, who is our vicar’s brother, and was played at the Trooping of the Colour 2006, for the late Queen’s 80th birthday. In view of this, Albert – the band’s musical director - handed the baton over to Paul so that he could conduct, and he rose to the challenge very well.

We enjoyed a delicious supper of ham and various salads, followed by a wonderful selection of home-made sweets. Thanks must go to all those who prepared, donated, and served the lovely food. Thank you to those who sold raffle tickets and gave draw prizes. The flowers on the tables were very pretty and extra thanks must go to the lady who gathered them from her garden in the pouring rain. Thanks also to the folks who took the ticket money, helped to set up the room in the afternoon and for tidying away afterwards.

A lovely social occasion that raised £381, split equally between the band and the Community Hall kitchen extension fund. Well done everyone! Ruth

6th August: The Transfiguration of Jesus

It's an unusual story. One day, Jesus is with three disciples on a high mountain in Galilee, when His appearance dramatically changes. Also, Moses and Elijah suddenly appear, and from a cloud comes the voice of God. What is this all about?

This event was witnessed by James, Peter, and John. They were close friends of Jesus. In the future, they were to become prominent leaders in the Early Church. They needed to see something special that would help them remember Jesus in the difficult years ahead. They had a glimpse of Christ in His divine glory. His face shone like the sun and His clothes turned white as light.

While this was an extraordinary sight for the disciples, it served to encourage Jesus who once had glory and majesty in Heaven. One day He would have it again. But firstly, He had to fulfil His mission: to suffer on the cross and die.

Why were Moses and Elijah standing with Jesus? Moses was the giver of the Law and Elijah represented all the prophets. They had pointed people to the promised Messiah. Jesus was about to complete God's plan of salvation.

God's voice was heard to remind Peter there was no need to build shelters. They were not going to stay on the mountain. God spoke to get the disciples to fix their attention on Jesus. The wonder of the Transfiguration was a short interlude before Jesus had to return to His work and subsequent death on the cross.

This story is a reminder that our times of spiritual blessing have to be followed by down-to-earth commitments and responsibilities. In the same way that Jesus gave His friends a glimpse of His awesome glory, to help them face challenging and traumatic times ahead, our special times in His presence are provided to encourage us and equip us for the trials we may have to face.

Our journey through life may sometimes rise to the peaks but we can't stay on a 'high' all the time – no matter how much we want it! We have to descend to face everyday challenges if we are to fulfil our calling in Christ. From our mountain-top experiences we all need to find a balance between times alone with God and serving Him in the company of others.

By Lester Amann

And Jesus said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a desolate place and rest a while." For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. Mark 6.31

Spiritual Disciplines: Rest by Canon Paul Hardingham

'Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.'
(Matthew 11:28).

Today, the spiritual discipline of rest is a challenging one. We are pressured to cram more and more activities into fewer hours. This has been described as 'hurry sickness' and is an enemy of our spiritual life. August is a month for resting, and so is a good time to look at this discipline.

God instituted the discipline of rest in the creation of the world. He created everything in six days and rested on the seventh (Gen 2:3). He instituted the Sabbath, a weekly day of rest (Lev 23:3). However, it is helpful to draw a distinction between busyness and being hurried. Busyness is an outward condition, while hurry is about our inner state, resulting from too many competing priorities. Jesus was often busy but never hurried! What questions should we be asking about getting more rest?

Balancing Rest and Work:

What is a helpful rhythm of work and rest in our lives? How can we take seriously the Sabbath principle of having one day a week to rest and not work? How might we use our time differently eg taking a long walk or having an unhurried conversation with a friend?

Using Our Leisure Time Creatively:

When we actually take a break we often end up simply watching TV, surfing the net, shopping unnecessarily or eating when we are not hungry! Can we choose leisure activities that really refresh us? It's not a case of more leisure time, but using the time we have more creatively.

'The solution to an over busy life is not more time. It's to slow down and simplify our lives around what really matters.' (The Ruthless Elimination of Hurry: John Mark Comer).

Read a book!

This summer, why not encourage your children to read a book? A recent study has found that children who read for pleasure carry the benefits with them far into adulthood. And the most avid childhood readers score far higher on vocabulary tests, even thirty years later. As Marcel Proust the author once said, there are "no days of our childhood lived so fully as those spent with a favourite book."

Bumblebees are happy near churches

Bumblebees like churchyards. At least, they were the insects most seen during a recent survey of churchyards and burial grounds in England.

It all shows “how valuable, when managed sensitively, many of our churchyards are for bumblebees,” said a spokesman for Caring for God’s Acre, a conservation charity for UK burial grounds. Such places often offer unique habitats for nature.

The survey was part of the Churches Count on Nature, an opportunity for communities to record plants, insects and animals found in burial grounds and churchyards. After bumblebees, ladybirds and aphids took second and third place.

Way ahead

People aren’t really so smart. The turtle had a streamlined body for travel, a hard top, retractable landing gear and a mobile home for thousands of years before we did.

Rosemary Hickson – Funeral at St Peter’s 25th July

The church will remember Rosemary as a most faithful Churchwoman over many years – mainly at St Peter’s but also at St Leonard’s. The farming community will remember her as an intelligent, diligent, resourceful and resilient farmer and farmer’s wife at Parkhouse Farm who, with husband John, built up a perfect herd of Friesian cows (the Healbury herd) after losing their earlier stock in the foot and mouth outbreak of 1967. The community will remember Rosemary as a member of Middlewich Young Farmers’ Club, especially the occasion when she was one of the Ladies

In Waiting to the Cheshire Young Farmers Dairy Queen, and subsequently as a loyal Warmingham WI member and keen bridge player. The trifles she could make were amazing!

Rosemary was born at Clive Farm near Winsford. She had remarkable parents who both left their mark on her – her mother being the most gentle kind lady, while her father was a strong tough character who had served as a Captain in WW1.

Rosemary and John were married in October 1956 on her 21st birthday. They had two children – David and Elizabeth. She is reported as saying in her inimitable way after Elizabeth was born: “I’ve got one of each. That will do.” Sadly John died in June 1994 after Rosemary had devotedly nursed him over a long and cruel illness.

David gave a moving tribute to his mother at the funeral. He recalled several amusing episodes in her life. For example, the calf which balked at drinking from the bucket, but learned obedience after Rosemary threw the bucket of milk over him/her. Or the cheeky neighbour who would invite Rosemary over if she had nothing on. Or the note she found under the windscreen wiper of her car which read:

Roses are red Violets are blue.
Your pigs are beautiful
And so are you.

Since losing John, Rosemary has been a close friend with Willie Crawford who, with his late wife, had been longstanding family friends. Together, Rosemary and Willie have made the most of their twilight years. To Willie, as to David and Elizabeth, our deepest sympathies. We also remember Rosemary's lifelong friends Cynthia and Eileen who also were present at the funeral.

Always smiling and upbeat, and always beautifully turned out with her hair styled each week by Elizabeth (she often stood in as cashier in one of her salons, where she will also be fondly remembered). Rosemary has been a model wife, mother, farmer and pillar of the community and the church. She will be missed in so many ways – not least for the way she would parade the haggis at Burns Night suppers in St Peter's Community Hall!

Now laid to rest with John in St Peter's churchyard, may she rest in peace and rise in glory.

International Bat Night: 26th-27th August

Did you know that there are 18 species of bat in the UK?

And did you know that these bats make up almost a quarter of ALL our mammal species?

So, our UK bats are well worth celebrating. And International Bat Night brings together bat groups and the Bat Conservation Trust, to provide many opportunities for bat walks and talks at dusk in local neighbourhoods across the UK.

As the bat groups explain: “We aim to encourage thousands of people across the country to see bats in their natural environment by taking part in a range of events organised by local bat groups, wildlife trusts, countryside rangers and other organisations across the country.”

More information at:

<https://www.bats.org.uk/support-bats/international-bat-night>

Allotments come of age as 2023 marks the 21st year of National Allotments Week

Much beloved by gardeners across the UK, allotments are cherished for the space they provide to grow one's own fresh vegetables, among other things.

This year the theme is Soil Health. As National Allotments Week explains:

“Good soil health is widely accepted as way to improve yield when growing edibles, but also contributes positively to biodiversity and the environment as the world faces more climate challenges. The NAS hope that this National Allotments Week will inform and educate gardeners old and new about the benefit of caring for the soil and the creatures that inhabit it.”

More info at: <https://www.nsalg.org.uk>

Gardening Prayer

Heavenly Father, as I tend to this garden, I am reminded of the sanctity and beauty of life and see Your goodness and grace. May the soil, seeds, and plants that sprout produce fruit, nourishing the body and soul. May this time spent in the garden be a moment with You in peace and reflection. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

😊 Not late

A little girl, dressed in her Sunday best, was running as fast as she could, trying not to be late for church. As she ran she prayed, "Dear Lord, please don't let me be late! Dear Lord, please don't let me be late!"

While she was running and praying, she tripped on a curb and fell, getting her clothes dirty and tearing her dress. She got up, brushed herself off, and started running again.

As she ran she once again began to pray, "Dear Lord, please don't let me be late! But please don't shove me either!"
