Parish Safeguarding Officer:

Vacancy at St Leonard's

The Parish Safeguarding Officer is the key link between the diocese and the parish, concerning safeguarding matters.

It is a positive leadership role supporting and providing direction to the parish in good safeguarding practice.

They will have an overview of all church activities involving children, young people and vulnerable adults and will seek to ensure the implementation of safeguarding policy and practice.

The role can be taken by one person, or the role shared. Support is provided by the diocese.

If you would like more information or to discuss the role please speak to Rev Paul North.

As I look out of my window, I can see Autumn making its steady march over the beautiful churchyard, the colours and shapes of the trees and plants changing daily. It really is a stunning spectacle and despite summer's best efforts to hold on, giving us a few hot days to cling on to, the change of the seasons keeps coming. It reminds me that life is constantly changing and that each new day is different.

Ecclesiastes 3:1 reminds us,

“There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens” Ecclesiastes 3:1

It helps us to understand and appreciate that things do change, that new things must happen, that we will face difficult and challenging circumstances as well as positive and joyful ones. We have to be prepared for things to be different from how they were, to watch for the joy on the new seasons as they approach.

The Bible also reminds us that God's love for us never changes and never will change. That with each changing day we can know his constant unchanging love. As Lamentations 3 tells us,

*The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases,
his mercies never come to an end;
they are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.* Lamentations 3:22-23

And Hebrews 13 says,

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever.
Hebrews 13:8

We need not fear the changes that life throws at us. The seasons remind us that change is good and necessary. The reason we need not fear is that God and his love for us stay the same. As you see the leaves changing and falling, may they remind you of the never changing love of God.

A Prayer for October

Dear Lord and Creator of all things,
In this fast-moving and high-tech world, help us to slow down – just occasionally – to notice the rhythms of Your creation; the beauty of the colours of autumn; the annual ritual of falling leaves and darkening evenings. All part of Your cycle of the year that we often take for granted. And yet Lord, there is evidence of changes in our climate – extremes of temperature, droughts, floods and wildfires. There is evidence that our behaviour might be responsible for damaging Your world.
Lord, we thank You for Your goodness and faithfulness and grace to us. We are sorry when we get things wrong. Thank you for sending Jesus to show us the way to be in a right relationship with You. Help us to put our trust in Him and as part of living Christian lives, to accept our responsibility for caring for the world You created.

In Jesus' name, Amen

He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way to be generous in every way, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God.

2 Corinthians 9:10-11

For the promise of harvest contained within a seed, we thank you.
For the oak tree within an acorn.
The bread within a grain.
The apple within a pip.
The mystery of nature, gift wrapped for us to sow, we thank you.

During this time, as we see the rich bounty nature can provide, let us take time to give thanks to God. We pray for farmers and all those who work on the land during harvest time. We pray that they will be safe as they go about their work.

Bible Sunday – 29th October

At the recent Coronation the King was given a Bible with the words 'the most valuable thing that this world affords'. As Bible Sunday is celebrated this month, let's ask why we should read the Bible?

The Bible isn't a single book, but a library of 66 books, composed by some 44 writers over 1500 years in a range of styles including history, poetry, prophecy, letters and apocalyptic (looking at the end times). Despite having a number of different writers, it claims one authority - God Himself! 'All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work' (2 Timothy 3:16). The Bible is inspired ('the word of God in the words of men') and equips us to live for God in every aspect of our lives. We also have the promise of the Holy Spirit to guide us when we read: 'when the Spirit of truth comes, He will guide you into all truth' (John 16:13).

How should we read the Bible? Let's consider the following guidelines:

Right time: We need a regular routine, which will meet our needs. This will vary according to our circumstances: e.g., a mum at home with young children, somebody with a demanding job or a retired person.

Right Place: We need to find a space where we can be undisturbed (e.g. lounge, bedroom, train or kitchen).

Right Version: We need a version of the Bible which we can readily understand and use. A number of versions are available (e.g. NIV, The Message), as well as Bible apps we can access on our phone.

Right Help: Reading notes also help us to understand a passage and apply it to our lives.

Canon Paul Hardingham

“...but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength.
They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.” Isaiah 40:31

All Souls' Memorial Service at St Peter's Sunday 5th November 2023 at 7.00pm

We would like to invite you and any other members of your family and friends to our forthcoming special memorial service, to be held on Sunday 5th November at 7.00pm in St Peter's Church.

This service is especially for those of you who have been bereaved. During the service there will be an opportunity to come and light a candle in memory of your loved one.

We would very much like the opportunity of meeting you and members of your family. We do hope you will be able to attend. You are warmly invited to stay for a cup of tea or coffee after the service.

With the assurance of our prayers and good wishes.

From January to July 2023, we have experienced a 60% decrease in donations of food and an increase of 25% in demand. As we anticipate further increase in demand that foodbanks are set to have nationally over the coming autumn and winter months we need every bit of support that people are able to offer. We appreciate that the current economic climate is stretching everyone and are mindful that potential donors are assured that just one food item makes a difference.

"No act of kindness, no matter how small, is ever wasted" – Aesop.

It would be great to know if you plan to collect long life food items for the foodbank this Harvest. If you are able to bring the donations to us this is much appreciated as we do have limited staff capacity to collect. However, if you anticipate a large collection and need us to collect then do please get in touch to request this with as much advance notice as possible so we have enough staff to resource collections.

Donations from our Harvest Festivals will be given to St Paul's Pantry

Say a 'thank you' prayer

A line in the Lord's Prayer asks God to 'Give us this day our daily bread'. When we say that line, we're asking God to provide the basic things in life that keep us healthy and happy. It can start with the food we need to eat each day, but for lots of different reasons, not everyone has enough. So saying thank you for our food is important – we might thank the person who cooked it, and we might go back further and think of the people in the shops where we bought the ingredients, and even trace it right back to the farmers who grew the crops in the first place.

For children who are old enough, trying talking about this together one meal time, taking each item on the plate and thinking about where it came from and all the people and work that has gone into bringing it to your table. Saying grace before a meal is a way of saying thank you to God for making the earth and everything in it – all good things come from God, and it's up to us to use them in the very best and most generous way.

Try singing this grace:

One, two, three, four, five, thank you God that I'm alive. Six, seven, eight, nine, ten, thank you God for food. Amen!

One of the most traditional graces goes like this:

"For what we are about to receive, may the Lord make us truly thankful and keep us always mindful of the needs of others."

Some families hold hands while they say grace – this reminds us that we are thankful not only for our food, but that we can share it with people we love, as in this prayer:

"Thank you God for food, and family, and friends. Amen. or "Thank you God for food, and family, and friends, we remember those who have no food today, and those who have food, but nobody to share it, As you have blessed us, help us be a blessing for others. Amen

"For everything God created is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, because it is consecrated by the word of God and prayer." 1 Timothy 4:4-5

Holy Day - 18th October

St Luke the Evangelist – linking the sacred and the profane

To St Luke, a Gentile, we owe the beautifully written Gospel of Luke, and the Book of Acts. He was a Greek physician, a disciple of St Paul, a companion on some of his missionary journeys, and an inspired writer.

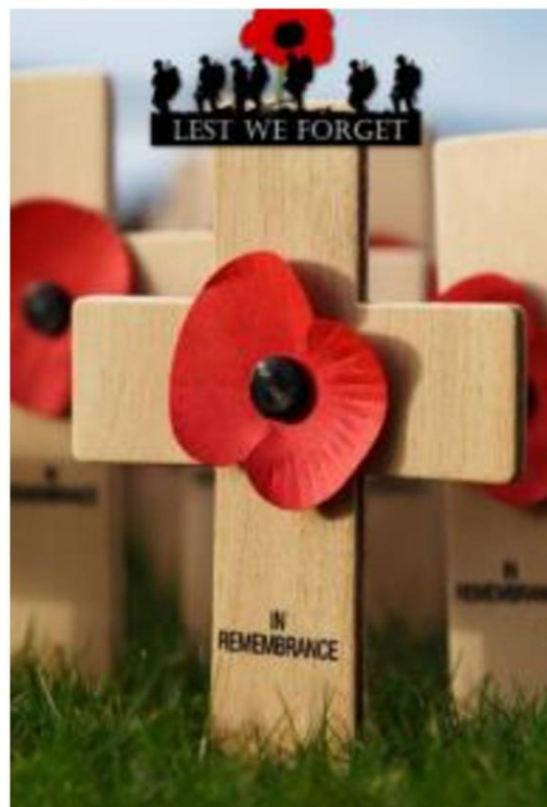

Luke's gospel focuses on the compassion of Christ. His gospel contains some of the most moving parables, such as the Good Samaritan and Prodigal Son. This, with his emphasis on poverty, prayer and purity of heart, make up much of his appeal to the Gentiles, for whom he wrote.

Women figure more prominently in Luke's gospel than any other: look out for the extended story of the Virgin Birth, and stories of Mary, Elizabeth, and the woman who was a sinner.

In Acts, Luke is remarkably good at linking sacred and profane history, as subsequent archaeology has shown. A principal theme of his Acts is how the early Christians moved away from Jerusalem into the pagan world, and especially on to Rome.

Luke is the patron saint of doctors, surgeons and artists (due to his picturesque style of writing). His symbol is an ox, sometimes explained by reference to the sacrifice in the Temple at the beginning of his Gospel. In England 28 ancient churches were dedicated to him.

Falling Leaves

Fall, leaves, fall; die, flowers, away;
Lengthen night and shorten day;
Every leaf speaks bliss to me
Fluttering from the autumn tree.

From a poem by Emily Bronte (1818-48)

News from Warmingham CE Primary School

It's been a busy start to the school year – it's hard to believe that we have only been back in school for two weeks.

On Monday, we announced our new head pupils, house captains, eco warriors and head librarians in worship.

The children in Year 6 had to complete an application form and be interviewed for the roles. Choosing children for each of the roles is always incredibly difficult, as we know that some of them will be disappointed because they didn't get the role they wanted.

Over the course of the year, we will be developing the roles, so all of the children in Year 6 will have the opportunity to lead things in school.

Our house captains will be organising inter-house competitions with Miss Turrell.

Mrs B will be working with our eco warriors to introduce initiatives which will help us to ensure that we take better care of our wonderful planet.

Mrs Wright will be working with our head librarians and their team to promote reading across the school.

Mrs Allen will be working closely with our head pupils and the ethos council on some exciting projects.

On Wednesday, some of the children in Key Stage Two (Squirrels and Badgers Class) took part in the Town Sports Competition. It was a real team effort with everyone trying their very best. Overall, we came third and we won the small school's category. Well done Seb, Lucas, Lydia, Chloe, Freddie, Alfie, Tiana, Lilly, Zara, Pati, Oliver S, Bradley, Morrison, Oliver P, Simon, Alice and Eliza. We are so proud of you.

We are proud to announce that we have achieved the School's Games Gold award for the second year running. Congratulations Team Warmingham.

Cranmer Awards - Local Heat

On Saturday, 4th November at 2pm St Mary's Nantwich will host the Chester Diocesan Archbishop Cranmer Awards for young people. This is a reading competition open to young people from all backgrounds and faiths aged 11–18, split into Juniors and Seniors (11–14 and 15–18). Competitors are invited to recite passages from the 1662 Book of Common Prayer. There will be three local judges from within the community to decide upon the winners.

In this local heat there will be prizes for section winners and runners-up, and all competitors are given positive and constructive feedback, a certificate and a small medallion.

The aims of the competition is to encourage the skills of reading aloud with empathy, expression, and impact and to acquaint young people with the majestic language of devotion and prayer within the Book of Common Prayer.

Local heats are followed by a national final, which will be held in February 2024 at Hampton Court Palace. Further details can be obtained from the website of the Prayer Book Society: Cranmer Awards - The Prayer Book Society. Local applications to: nandlpearson@ntl.com
