‘Let Your Light Shine’

Matthew 5:16

Dear Parents,

In our world of 24-hour supermarkets – with their shelves bursting with countless pre-packaged forms of wheat, barley and their gluten-free equivalents, with multiple varieties of Manuka honey and chilli infused olive oil – it can be easy for some to take food for granted. For others, things are becoming increasingly more and more challenging.

Harvest is a time for us to recall and celebrate together the origins of these good gifts – to express our gratitude for the land and people who produce them, and to thank God. Today, we had the opportunity to express our thanks and support others who are less fortunate than ourselves.

Thank you to all of you who were able to join us this morning for our Harvest Festival, and for your kind donations. I know that St Paul’s Pantry will be grateful, as the demand for food parcels is currently really high.

There is so much going on in the world today – all of which is adding to our daily pressures and worries. In times of difficulty, it’s important that we not lose sight of the importance of kindness and compassion.

Every family, adult and even some children are dealing with an incredible amount at the moment. People may appear fine, but underneath they may be sinking. Kindness goes a long way. Please remember that we are here for you as well as your children.

Kind regards,

Kate Appleby

Principal's Update

On Tuesday night, we held our first governors meeting of the year. At the meeting, I shared my evaluation of the school – our strengths and areas for development before going through our school development plan for this year:

Priority 1:

To further develop the school's vision and Christian distinctiveness with particular reference to:

- a) Building on the understanding that pupils gain through the curriculum, develop their roles as courageous advocates. This will give them the ability to challenge social injustice at a local, national and global level.
- b) Promote and embed a shared definition and vocabulary of spirituality so that all can fluently explain and articulate its impact on themselves and others.
- c) Continue to embed the current RE syllabus to add further rigour and develop staff confidence.
- d) Ensure the successful implementation of the new RE syllabus in September 2024.
- e) Achieve the Silver Rights Respecting Award.

Priority 2:

To ensure all children make good to outstanding progress in all subjects with particular reference to:

- a) Raise expectations to ensure that our more able children are provided with learning opportunities to ensure they exceed age related expectations in all subjects.
- b) Continue to raise expectations in writing so standards continue to rise.
- c) Improve parents' knowledge of how we teach mathematical calculations, so they are better equipped to support their children at home.

Priority 3:

To further develop our connected curriculum with particular reference to:

- a) Implement reviewed connected curriculum documents.
- b) Further develop the assessment of the connected curriculum.
- c) Develop the use of the art sketch books so they reflect the development of skills over a unit of work.
- d) Further develop our DT provision so the children have access to exciting learning opportunities and high-quality resources.
- e) Introduce STEM family learning events.

As you'll know from our 'Meet the Teacher' we have moved away from IPEELL approach to deliver our writing. The IPPEELL scheme was so structured and controlled in English, the children struggled to transfer the skills to other areas of the curriculum.

Following the success of 'Pathways to Read' and 'Pathways to Spell', we have introduced 'Pathways to Write' which is a mastery approach to writing. The units of work are delivered using high quality texts. Within each unit, the children are given varied opportunities for writing. Skills are built up through repetition within the units, and children apply these skills in the writing activities provided. Many opportunities for widening children's vocabulary are provided through the Pathways to Write approach as it builds on the extensive work, we do in school to provide our children with a rich and varied vocabulary.

When we introduce anything new into school, we also involve the children. Last week, our English lead, Mrs Wright spoke to some of the children across the school. 100% of the children prefer 'Pathways to Write' to the IPEELL approach.

Some of the children's comments are below:

"I have learnt so much more like how to write hashtags. It is better in every way".

"It lets us write more freely and we use our imagination more".

"It is way more fun".

"I enjoy it a lot more".

"I think people put more effort in because they have more freedom".

"I like planning in a different way".

Following the introduction of 'Pathways to Write' this September, we are currently reviewing our connected curriculum long term plans and subject booklets to ensure the children continue to experience a broad and balanced curriculum.

Trips and Residential

We understand that lots of our families are struggling financially at the moment. As a school, we are able to access some charity funds on your behalf. There are also other pots of money I can use from our budget, if your family fits the criteria. Please don't struggle - we're here to help.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding the trip or you are experiencing financial difficulties, please feel free to speak to me. We have emailed a copy of our Financial Assistance form for you to complete to request financial help with the cost of a trip or residential. The form will be treated in the strictest of confidence.

We are in the process of emailing out the information about next year's residentials and a couple of trips that are planned for later this term. We are trying to give you as much notice as possible so you can spread out the payments. There is no expectation to pay them in full straight away. Other than the residentials, we do not have any trips planned for the spring term.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding the trip or you are experiencing financial difficulties, please feel free to speak to me or complete the form which can be found on the school's website.

Online Safety

For the next couple of months, we going to include a poster about online safety for you to use at home with the newsletters. I am also in the process of organising an online safety parent workshop.
